

ive districts, and also all books, documents and papers used by them during their proceedings as said assessors; and no payment shall be made to said assessors for the services rendered until said documents and books are returned to the proper authorities for receiving same.

SEC. 20. And be it enacted, It shall be the duty of the said several Boards of County Commissioners, acting as boards of control and review, to give two weeks' notice by publication prior, to the second Tuesday of September, nineteen hundred and ten, or thereafter, as hereinafter provided; and if there be no newspaper published in the county for which any Board of County Commissioners, acting as such board of control and review, such notice shall be given by notice set up at the court house door in said county, and other public places in said county. Each of said Boards of County Commissioners acting as boards of control and review shall assemble on the second Tuesday in September, nineteen hundred and ten; or, in case of time for completing the assessment shall have been extended by the Governor, as provided by this Act, then upon the day on which by which his direction said assessment must be returned, and shall continue in session daily thereafter, from ten o'clock A. M. until three o'clock P. M., and shall, on each of said days, remain in session not less than five hours, and shall receive pay only for the days on which they shall actually be in session. Each of the said Boards of County Commissioners, acting as boards of control and review, shall proceed to consider the returns to them respectively made by the assessors from the respective assessment districts within their respective jurisdictions, and to hear and determine the appeals of any person or owner taken in accordance with Section 16 of this Act, who may deem himself or itself aggrieved by any valuation of property made by said assessors. In every Board of County Commissioners acting as a board of control and review a majority of the members of said board shall constitute a quorum and be competent to perform all duties and exercise all the powers of the said board. Each of the said Boards of County Commissioners acting as boards of control and review shall fully inform persons or owners resident within their respective jurisdiction who may apply to them as to the property valued within its jurisdiction to such respective persons and owners as to the amount at which said property has been so valued. Each of said Boards of County Commissioners acting as boards of control and review shall have power and authority to examine, upon oath or affirmation, any person or persons making any complaint of or appeal from any valuation returned to such boards touching any other property belonging to said person or owner, whether the same had been