

the Comptroller, to whom he shall give bond in the penalty of one thousand dollars, and the balance he shall retain as his own compensation for the services hereby imposed and performed; provided, that, besides the two cents, he shall pay all excess over $1,000 to the Comptroller, it being the intent of this Act that he shall only receive $1,000 per annum as his salary, to be paid entirely from his fees, at 8 cents net per load. The said vegetables shall be weighed in full wagon loads, and after their delivery to the purchasers his wagon and the empty boxes shall be returned to said scales and the weight thereof shall be deducted from the gross weight as shown by the first weighing, and the said packers shall be required to pay for said vegetables at the weight certified by said weigher. In case the boxes in which said tomatoes are contained shall not be returned, the said weigher shall weigh ten empty boxes, and the average of weight shall be established as the weight of all boxes contained in any wagon or wagons so weighed by him, and any packer who shall refuse to pay for the same according to the certificate of said weigher shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than $10, nor more than $50, for each offense; and any driver of any wagon who shall sell, dispose of or barter any of the produce in his wagon which has been sold to a packer or other purchaser between the time of the weighing of the same and the delivery to the purchaser, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction before a Justice of the Peace, shall be fined twenty-five dollars for each offense.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 13, 1910.
