

where the hearing is in any of the counties, shall be the same as allowed by the Circuit Court of the county in which the hearing takes place, for attendance of witnesses before it, and the disbursements made in the payment of such fees shall be duly audited in accordance with a due and satisfactory method of auditing and bookkeeping, and shall be included in and paid in the same manner as is provided for the payment of other expenses of the Commission. It shall be the duty of every public officer, without exacting or receiving charge or fee of any kind, to furnish to the Commission, upon its application, a certified copy of any document, or part thereof, on file in his office, and no public officer shall be entitled to receive from the Commission any fee for entering, filing, docketing or recording any document required or authorized by law to be filed in his office.

If a person subpoenaed to attend before the Commission or a Commissioner fail to obey the command of such subpoena, without reasonable cause, or if a person in attendance before the Commission or a Commissioner shall, without a reasonable cause, refuse to be sworn or to be examined, or answer a question, or to produce a book or paper when ordered to do so by the Commission or a Commissioner, or to subscribe or swear to his deposition after it has been correctly produced in writing, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and may be prosecuted therefor in any court of competent criminal jurisdiction.

If a person in attendance before the Commission or a Commissioner refuse, without reasonable cause, to be examined, or to answer a legal and pertinent question, or to produce a book or paper when ordered to do so by the Commission or Commissioner, the Commission or Commissioner may apply to any Judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City or of the Circuit Court for any county, upon proof by affidavit of the fact, for a rule or order returnable in not less than two nor more than five days, directing such person to show cause before the Judge who made the order, or any other Judge aforesaid, why he should not be committed to jail; upon the return of such order, the Judge before whom the matter shall come on for a hearing shall examine under oath such person, and such person shall be given an opportunity to be heard; and if the Judge shall determine that such person has refused, without reasonable cause or legal excuse, to be examined or to answer a legal and pertinent question, or to produce a book or paper which he was ordered to bring or produce, he may forthwith commit the offender to jail, there to remain until he submits to do the act which he was so required to do, or is discharged according to law.
