

CHAPTER 302.

AN ACT to change the name of The Female House of Refuge to the name of The Maryland Industrial School for Girls, and otherwise to amend the charter of said institution.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the name of The Female House of Refuge be and the same is hereby changed to the name of The Maryland Industrial School for Girls, which is hereby fixed and established in perpetuity as the corporate name of said institution.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all legacies now existing or hereafter given by persons dying, after the date of this Act, and all appropriations made, or hereafter to be made, by the General Assembly of Maryland, or by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, and intended for this institution, but given or made by its former name of The Female House of Refuge, instead of its name, as fixed by this Act, shall remain and inure to the benefit of The Maryland Industrial School for Girls.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That the Act of 1870, Chapter 391, Section 3, being an amendment to the charter of said institution, be and the same is hereby repealed, and the following is hereby enacted as a substitute for said section:

SEC. 4. That the affairs of the said institution shall be managed by thirty directors, fifteen of whom shall be chosen annually by the members on the second Monday in January, and five of whom shall be appointed annually in the month of January, by the Mayor of the City of Baltimore, with the advice and consent of the Council of said city, and ten of whom to be severally resident of some county in this State, shall be appointed biennially in the month of January, by the Governor of the State, with the advice and consent of the Senate. And in case of failure to appoint or elect at the times hereinbefore mentioned, they shall be appointed or elected as soon thereafter as possible, and a special meeting of the members may be called by the directors at any time after such failure for the purpose of a special election of them, and in all cases the directors shall hold office until their successors are appointed or elected; and seven of said directors shall constitute a quorum, but vacancies shall be filled by the concurrent vote of not less than ten directors.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 7, 1910.
