CHAPTER 308.

AN ACT to appropriate $5,500 for extraordinary repairs to the Maryland State Normal School Building, Baltimore, same having become necessary for the safety and protection of said building.

Whereas, The boilers and entire heating plant in said building were examined and pronounced unsafe by an architect employed by the State Board of Education, and also inadequate to heat the additional rooms required for the practice department; and,

Whereas, It became necessary, on account of the overcrowded and unsanitary conditions, to abandon the poorly lighted rooms in the basement of said building, used by the children of the practice department, and to provide additional rooms for said department, all of which has cost $10,590; and

Whereas, For the further protection of said property of the State of Maryland, it will be necessary to spend an additional $1,000 in repairs to the roof of said building; and,

Whereas, The State Board of Education has, with moneys saved from the appropriation for maintenance of said school, been able to pay one-half the cost of said extraordinary repairs.
