

effect and be in force from and after the date of their passage, unless it shall therein otherwise expressly be provided. All ordinances of the city, when printed and published, and bearing on the title page thereof the words "Ordained and published by the Mayor and City Council of Cumberland," or words of like import, shall be prima facie evidence of their authority, and shall be admitted and received in all courts and places without further proof.

SEC. 114. The style of all ordinances shall be, "Be it ordained by the Mayor and City Council of Cumberland," but such caption may be omitted when said ordinances are published in book form, or are revised and digested under the order of the Mayor and City Council.

SEC. 115. The Mayor and City Council, at their first meeting after their qualification, or as soon thereafter as possible, shall select the following officers, to wit: a city clerk, a treasurer, an attorney, a collector of taxes, a city magistrate and health officer, a chief of police, a chief of fire department, an engineer, who shall also be superintendent of streets, an auditor, a superintendent of water and electric light works, an assistant engineer of the water and electric light works, and, if deemed necessary by the Mayor and City Council, an assistant chief of police, an assistant chief of the fire department and an assistant city engineer. All said officers so elected shall receive such salary or compensation as the Mayor and City Council may by ordinance provide, payable in equal monthly instalments, and shall hold their offices for two years, and until the election and qualification of their successors, unless removed by the said Mayor and City Council under the authority vested in it by this Act.

CITY CLERK.

SEC. 115A. It shall be the duty of the City Clerk to attend every meeting of the Mayor and City Council, and keep the minutes and records of all their proceedings in a well-bound book kept for that purpose, and he shall perform other duties as may be required of him by said Mayor and City Council.

TREASURER.

The Treasurer shall give bond in such amount and in such form as may be required by the said Mayor and City Council, in a sum not less than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), and with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Mayor and the Commissioner of Finance and Revenue, said bond to be conditioned for the faithful discharge of his
