

value thereof, and shall make return thereof to the County Commissioners; and for the purposes of this section the said collectors shall be clothed with the power of general assessor, and shall receive the fees heretofore allowed by law or usage to collectors of taxes for assessing new property in said county, and his valuation thereof shall be subject to revision and correction by said Commissioners; it shall, moreover, be lawful for the County Commissioners to appoint in each of the election districts of said county one of the constables thereof to act under this section, and to make such return to said commissioners in which case each of said constables so appointed shall be clothed with said power of general assessor, and shall respectively receive the fees aforesaid on property so returned by them respectively; provided, however, that in no case shall said fees be allowed to any other of said officers than the one first making return as aforesaid, and to each only on such property as is returned by him.

43E. The provisions of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland now in force, or hereafter enacted applicable to collectors of State and county taxes, except where the same are repealed by or are inconsistent with of this sub-title of this Article, shall be held to apply to the treasurer of said county, who as to this power, rights, duties and liabilities, both civil and criminal, and those of his bond or bondsmen shall be in all respects on a footing with State and county collectors except as herein provided. And the present treasurer of Allegany County shall remain in office until his successor shall have qualified.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the Act of 1902, Chapter 413, be and the same shall remain in full force and effect, so far as the same shall apply to and effect the County Treasurer of Allegany County, elected at the General Election, held in said county, in the month of November, 1909.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect upon the date of its passage.

Approved April 5, 1910.

CHAPTER 100.

AN ACT to enable the County Commissioners of Allegany County to levy money for the purpose of building a bridge across the Potomac river at or near Oldtown, in conjunction with the public authorities of Hampshire County, West Virginia.