

burg," and read as follows:

154A. All assessments heretofore or hereafter made by the Mayor and Councilmen against property or property owners for the improvement of streets, sidewalks and opening of streets in the town of Frostburg shall be a lien for three years from the time the same becomes or shall become due and payable upon the property on which said assessment has been or shall be made, and in the event of an appeal being taken by any property owner from said assessment, the said period of limitations shall be suspended pending such appeal.

154B. Said assessment shall be a first lien upon the property assessed, preferred to all other liens except State, county and corporation taxes.

154C. The Mayor and Councilmen shall keep a book in the office of the Tax Collector, in which shall be recorded all liens claimed under this Act, and the said lien record shall constitute due notice to the purchaser or purchasers of property therein mentioned of the payment or non-payment of assessments as herein noted.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1910.

CHAPTER 751.

AN ACT authorizing the County Commissioners of Allegany County to levy funds to be used by the Road Directors for Allegany County in paying for one-half of the costs of a free bridge over the Potomac River at or near the village of Luke, in Allegany County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the County Commissioners of Allegany County be and they are hereby empowered to levy on the assessable property of Allegany County at their regular annual levy for 1911, or at any subsequent annual levy, such a sum as may be found to be necessary for the purpose of joining Mineral County, West Virginia, in building a bridge across the Potomac River at some point which may be determined upon as most convenient, connecting the village of Luke, in Allegany County, Maryland, with the village of Beryl, in Mineral County, West Virginia.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That said sum so levied shall be entered to the use of the Road Directors for Allegany County, for the purpose aforesaid, which Road Directors are hereby
