

of November following, both exclusive, in each and every year in Allegany County.

Sec. 13. No person shall shoot, or in any manner catch or kill, or sell, or have in his possession, living or dead, any woodcock between the thirty-first day of July and the tenth day of November following, both exclusive, or between the thirty-first day of December and the first day of July following, both exclusive, in each and every year in Allegany County.

Sec. 14. No person shall shoot, or in any manner catch or kill, or sell, or have in his or her possession, living or dead, any squirrel between the thirty-first day of December and the fifteenth day of September following, both exclusive, in each and every year, in Allegany County.

Sec. 14A. No person shall shoot, or in any manner catch or kill or sell or have in his or her possession, living or dead, at any time in Allegany County any dove or doves; provided, that nothing in this Act shall be so construed as to prevent any person or corporation from having in his, her or its possession at any time live game, birds or animals for the purpose of propagation, provided said birds or animals are originally obtained outside of the State of Maryland.

Sec. 16. That any person found violating the provisions of Sections 12, 13, 14 and 14A of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before a Justice of the Peace shall be fined not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every violation. And in event of the non-payment of the fine, the person so convicted shall stand committed to the County Jail until such fine and costs are paid, but such imprisonment shall not exceed sixty days for each offense. Any person securing the conviction of any person or persons for violating the provisions of this Act shall receive one-half of the fine collected, after the payment of costs and the remaining one-half shall be paid over to the State Treasurer of Maryland to the account of the Game Protective Funds, to be used by the State Game Warden as may be provided by laws.

Sec. 16A. It shall not be lawful to sell or attempt to sell at any season of the year in Allegany County wild turkeys, partridges or quail, doves, woodcocks, English pheasants, pheasants or ruffed grouse or deer, nor shall it be lawful for anyone to ship for the purpose of selling elsewhere any of the above-named game, or rabbits or squirrels, and it shall be unlawful for an express or transportation company to ship or accept for shipment any of the above-mentioned game for the purpose of sale. Any express company or transportation company ship-
