

and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows:

171. The County Commissioners shall have full power to appoint such managers, keepers, superintendents and physicians therefor as may be deemed necessary to provide for their compensation, to prescribe rules for the government thereof, to enter into agreements for the reception of inmates thereof, and fix and establish from time to time rates at which inmates not dependent on the County shall be received, to provide for the purchase of all supplies and furniture for such buildings, additions and repairs as may be in their judgment necessary from time to time; they shall meet at and inspect said asylum at least once in each month, shall audit the books of said asylum monthly, and upon their approval of the bills and accounts against said institution; the same shall be paid by the draft of the clerk of the Commissioners, countersigned by the president of the Board on the treasurer of Allegany County.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect January 1, 1911.

Approved April 11, 1910.

CHAPTER 536.

AN ACT to add one new section to the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Frostburg," sub-title "Bailiff Policemen," to be known as Section 142A.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be added to the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Frostburg," sub-title "Bailiff Policemen," to be known as Section 142A, and in the Charter of the town of Frostburg to be known as Section 12A, and to read as follows:

There shall be one person to act as night policeman, elected in April, 1910, to serve for the term of one year, who shall be elected as provided in Section 142 in the same manner and shall be bound by the same duties as the night policeman therein provided for, and in April, 1911, two night policemen shall be elected instead of one, as provided in Section 142, and every second year thereafter the said two night policemen shall be elected, it being the intention of this law to increase the number of night policemen to be elected by the qualified voters of the town of Frostburg from one, as heretofore provided, to two, as provided by this Act.
