

missioners provided for in the next succeeding section of this Act, whenever twenty-five or more taxpayers of the Fifth District petition the County Commissioners to do so, and the owner or owners of the beds of said roads, streets, alleys or highways agree to convey an easement in the same to the said county without cost to the said county.

SEC. 124F. And be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the County Commissioner of the Fifth District of said county shall appoint at a meeting in the month of May of each year a commission, consisting of himself and three taxpayers, one from each election precinct in said Fifth District, who shall have the power to establish grades for all roads, streets, alleys and highways in said district; and it shall be the duty of said commission so appointed to expend the money set aside for the purpose of said improvement and maintenance in said district.

SEC. 124G. And be it enacted, It shall be the duty of the commission first appointed to compile a building code, which, when approved by the Board of County Commissioners, shall be the law governing the erection of buildings in said district.

SEC. 124H. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners shall have the power to set aside such other sums of money as in their judgment may be necessary for further improvements in said district; provided, however, that said money shall be collected from said district named in this bill and shall not be chargeable to any other districts of the county.

SEC. 124I. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners shall have the power to appoint for each district of the county, as aforesaid, a commission of three taxpayers thereof to carry out the provisions of this Act in their respective districts, to be appointed in the same manner and to serve for the like purposes as hereinbefore provided for the Fifth District.

SEC. 124J. And be it enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts contrary to or in conflict with the provisions of this Act be and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 124K. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the first day of May, 1910.

Approved April 7, 1910.
