

land, bordering on the property of the United States, to be used as a rifle range for the Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, That the jurisdiction of the State of Maryland is hereby ceded to the United States of America over all the lands lying under the waters of Carr's Creek, in Anne Arundel County, bordering on and adjoining the property of the United States of America, that is to be used as a rifle range for the Naval Academy, Annapolis, Maryland; that so long as such jurisdiction rests in the United States of America said lands shall be exonerated and discharged from all taxes, assessments and other charges that may be imposed under the authority of the State of Maryland; provided, that the United States of America shall retain such jurisdiction so long as the said adjoining lands shall be owned by the United States, and no longer; and provided further, that such jurisdiction is granted upon the express condition that the State of Maryland shall retain a concurrent jurisdiction with the United States of America in and over the said lands so far as that civil processes in all cases not affecting the real or personal property of the United States of America, and such criminal or other processes as shall issue under the authority of the State of Maryland, against any person or persons charged with crimes or misdemeanors committed within or without the limits of the said lands, may be executed therein, in the same way and manner as if no jurisdiction had been hereby ceded.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage:

Approved April 11, 1910.,

CHAPTER 415.

AN ACT to authorize and empower the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County, in the State of Maryland, at their discretion, to build and erect a draw bridge over Stony Creek, in the Third District of said county, from the east side of said creek to a point immediately opposite on the west side of said creek, and at a point which will give the most direct means of traffic and shorten the distance in connection therewith to Baltimore City from said east side of Stony Creek; and to issue bonds payable in twenty years to pay for the construction of said bridge and provide by taxation for the means of redeeming said bonds with interest, and provide the necessary keeper for said bridge.
