CHAPTER 647.

AN ACT to repeal Section 46 of Article 2 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, entitled "Anne Arundel County," subtitle "Annapolis," as same was repealed and re-enacted by Chapter 41 of the Acts of 1902, and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section forty-six of Article two of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Anne Arundel County," subtitle "Annapolis," be repealed with amendments so as to read as follows:

46. It shall not be lawful for any person, whether licensed to sell spirituous liquors or not, to sell, dispose of, barter or give, directly or indirectly, within the corporate limits of the City of Annapolis, or within five miles thereof, any spirituous or fermented liquors, wines or cordials of any kind, or in any quantity whatever, to any youth or minor under the age of twenty-one years, without the written order or consent of the parent or guardian of such minor, nor to any midshipman or student connected with or attached to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, or under orders to join or leave the said academy or preparing for admission to said academy, nor to any student of St. Johns College, without the written order of some professor of said college. And any person violating the provisions of this section shall be liable to indictment in the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined a sum not less than twenty dollars and not more than one hundred dollars and costs, and shall be confined in the county jail until such fine and costs are paid, provided said confinement in jail shall not exceed sixty days, but if any minor or person referred to in this section shall wilfully represent that he is of full age and that he is not prohibited by this section and thereby shall obtain any spirituous liquors, and the person selling the same shall be able to prove, at his trial, such misrepresentation and that he used due precaution before disposing of the liquor as aforesaid to said minors or other person falsely representing himself shall be acquitted of other persons, then the person so selling to the said minor or the charges; the minor or other person obtaining spirituous
