

in such manner as they, or a majority of them, may require, and shall faithfully account for all money received by him as secretary and treasurer aforesaid; and the person so appointed as secretary and treasurer, before he acts as such, shall give bond with surety to be approved by said Commissioners, or a majority thereof, in the sum of $75,000, conditioned for faithful execution of the trust reposed in him, which bond shall be filed in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County and recorded among the records of Baltimore County, and the cost of said bond to be paid out of the funds made available by this Act, a certified copy of which shall be received as evidence in any court of law or equity in this State; and the said Commissioners appointed by this Act shall have power to fill any vacancy occurring by death, resignation or refusal to act, or any other disqualification of the person so appointed as secretary and treasurer, and the person appointed to fill such vacancy shall give bond as herein required. Said Commissioners shall also have power to sue in any of the courts of this State in any matter connected with their duties under this Act. The County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall alone be responsible upon all cause of action which may arise out of the making of the improvements provided for by this Act, and all suits of every character shall be brought against it and not against the Commissioners created by this Act, or any members thereof.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 12, 1910.

CHAPTER 335.

AN ACT to authorize the Board of County School Commissioners of Baltimore County to settle the claim of George Sack & Sons for material furnished in the construction of the addition to the schoolhouse at Hamilton, in Baltimore County.

Whereas, George Sack & Sons furnished to R. E. Lee Bosley, the contractor for the erection of the addition to the schoolhouse at Hamilton, in Baltimore County, the material required for said addition; that the amount of material furnished by him toward the erection of said schoolhouse amounted to ten hundred and twelve dollars and ninety-one cents ($1,012.91); and,
