

ledge, including reading, writing and arithmetic, and such advanced studies as may be advisable.

371. The Board of School Commissioners of Baltimore County are authorized and directed to provide and to designate such school buildings as may be necessary as free evening schools, and to further provide from the now existing day schools or otherwise such teachers as may be requisite for such free evening schools, and the students therein shall be males, of not less than twelve years of age.

372. The Board of School Commissioners of Baltimore County shall have full power to appoint and fix the salaries of such teachers for free evening schools, and shall have power to make such regulations as they may deem necessary therefor; provided, however, that such salaries to be paid teachers of free evening schools shall not be less than two dollars and fifty cents for each and every evening session of said schools.

372A. No such schools shall be opened without the written application to the Trustees of said schools and to the Board of County School Commissioners of Baltimore County of at least twenty persons of the age required of students in such free evening schools.

372B. The teachers or persons appointed by the Board of School Commissioners shall make all necessary arrangements for supplying the books and other stationery required for the different schools, and for lighting and heating the buildings, subject to the approval of the Board of Public School Commissioners of Baltimore County, and to be paid for by the said Board of County School Commissioners.

372C. The teachers and all necessary expenses shall be paid out of the Public School Funds of Baltimore County, and that such payments shall be made at such times as the said Board of County School Commissioners aforesaid shall designate.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 1, 1910.

CHAPTER 44.

AN ACT to change the boundary line between the First and Third Election Districts of Baltimore County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the boundary line between the First and Third Election Districts of Baltimore County, as now laid down, be changed, and that the line which hereafter shall divide said