

a chief clerk and auditor who shall act as secretary of said commission. And said commission shall at the time of its organization as aforesaid and thereafter from time to time adopt such rules and by-laws and rules of procedure for the order and conduct of business as it may deem necessary. The said Good Roads Commission of Baltimore County shall meet on Monday in each week at the office of the County Commissioners of Baltimore County to transact business connected with its duties under this Act, and may hold such other meetings as the proper discharge of its duties may require. It shall keep a journal of proceedings, in which shall be entered all of its proceedings in detail, and the correctness of the same shall be attested each week by the president and secretary of the commission. It shall also keep books showing in detail the work done and the expenditures of money upon each section or portion of roads and bridges constructed or improved under the direction of said commission in each election district. All of which said books and records shall be open for inspection to any taxpayer of the county. Each of the County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall be entitled to receive the sum of six hundred dollars ($600) per annum, and no more, in addition to the salary now received as County Commissioners and as members of the highway commission of Baltimore County as compensation for the duties imposed upon them in this Act. The two members of said commission appointed by the judges of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, as herein provided, shall hold their office subject to the order of the members of the Court who appointed them, and shall receive as compensation the sum of six hundred dollars ($600) per annum. The Road Engineer of the Highways Commission of Baltimore County shall be the Chief Engineer of said Good Roads Commission, and shall receive such extra compensation for services rendered said commission as said Good Roads Commission shall determine.

Sec. 368d. If the voters of Baltimore County shall by a majority vote at the election aforesaid declare in favor of the issuance of said bonds as provided in this Act, then the County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall be and they are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to issue bonds to the amount of one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000), to be signed by the president of the said County Commissioners of Baltimore County and by the treasurer of said county, under the corporate seal of the said County Commissioners, to be designated as "Baltimore County Road Bonds," and to be numbered and to be issued in denominations of five hundred dollars ($500) and one thousand dollars ($1,000), bearing interest at the rate of four and one-half per
