

by the sale of said bonds and the interest accruing from said sinking fund with the treasurer and collector of State and county taxes for Baltimore County, who shall deposit the same in one or more banks designated by the County Commissioners, subject to the order of the "Good Roads Commission of Baltimore County," as herein provided; the compensation payable to the members of said commission as hereinbefore provided, together with all office expenses, cost of books, necessary filing devices, stationery supplies, maps, plans, statistics, etc., shall be paid, as far as practicable, out of the income arising from the investment of the sinking fund aforesaid, and the general roads and bridge fund as collected by the County Commissioners of Baltimore County; and for this purpose said County Commissioners of Baltimore County shall keep a separate, exact and accurate account of the income arising from the investment of said sinking fund, together with such other amount as they may find necessary to meet expenses above set forth, and place said amount so allotted with the treasurer and collector of State and county taxes for Baltimore County, and subject to the order of the "Good Roads Commission of Baltimore County," which said commission shall have power, should it be found necessary, to appoint such assistants to the District Road Supervisors and the Baltimore County Road Engineer, and such legal advisers as shall be found necessary to fulfill the duties of said commission, in which case it shall have the power to fix the compensation of such assistants and advisers, which shall be paid out of the fund aforesaid.

SEC. 368E. The said "Good Roads Commission of Baltimore County" shall have general charge of and control over the public highways, roads, bridges, streets and alleys of Baltimore County so far as the same shall be selected, erected, constructed and improved under the provisions of this Act; and after completion or improvement of any road or bridge, street, lane or alley, this commission shall, with the approval of the Baltimore County Roads Engineer and the consent of the Highways Commission of Baltimore County, which joint consent shall be in writing and duly recorded among the records of the Highways Commission of Baltimore County, transfer, convey and pass over to the said Highways Commission of Baltimore County such public highways, roads, bridges, streets and alleys so erected, constructed or improved, so that the same shall pass to and become under the control of the Highways Commission of Baltimore County and be by them maintained as now provided by law. The said "Good Roads Commission of Baltimore County" shall have all the power in respect to the public highways and bridges of the county which shall be constructed or improved out of the funds provided in this Act heretofore
