

SEC. 8. No person shall shoot or in any manner catch, kill, trap or have in possession in Baltimore County any rabbit, pheasant or partridge between December 20th and November 10th, exclusive of both dates, or upon any Sunday or election day, or when the ground is sufficiently covered with snow to track rabbits or birds, above mentioned; and no person shall shoot or in any manner catch, kill, trap, take or have in possession in Baltimore County any squirrel between September 30th and September 1st, inclusive of both dates, or upon any Sunday or election day.

SEC. 9. No person or corporation or transportation company shall have the right to buy, sell or offer for sale for the purpose of export from Baltimore County, or to export from or carry out of said Baltimore County any pheasant or partridge, except as in this Article otherwise provided. Any person violating the provisions of either this or the preceding section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of five dollars for each and every bird, rabbit or squirrel so taken, killed or had in possession or transported, bought or sold for export, and in default of such fine shall be imprisoned in the House of Correction or county jail for a period of not less than twenty days nor more than thirty days, or until the fine is paid.

SEC. 10. It shall not be lawful for any person to hunt, take, kill or shoot any partridge, jacksnipe, rabbit or squirrel in said county, without having first obtained from the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County a license permitting the person named therein to so hunt, take or kill such birds or animals, which license shall state the name of the applicant, his age, color of hair, height, occupation and residence, and shall not be transferable, and all licenses so issued shall date from the time so issued until the first day of the July next following the date of issuance of such license. The cost of said license shall be as follows: A bona fide of Baltimore County or a taxpayer of said county shall pay to the clerk the sum of one dollar and a clerk's fee of twenty-five cents for the issuance of such license; a non-resident of Baltimore County but a resident of Baltimore City or any other county in the State shall pay to the clerk of said Court the sum of five dollars and a clerk's fee of twenty-five cents for such license; a non-resident of the State shall pay to the clerk of said Court the sum of ten dollars and a clerk's fee of twenty-five cents for such license, which amount shall be paid over to the Baltimore County Chief Game Warden, as herein provided for in this Act. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of ten dollars for each and every
