

pheasant, partridge, jacksnipe, rabbit, or squirrel taken, shot, killed or had in possession contrary to the provision of this section, and costs, and in default the offender shall be confined to the House of Correction or county jail for not less than ten days nor more than thirty days; the whole of said fine shall go to the informer or person or persons securing the conviction thereof. And such licensee shall have said license in his possession when gunning or hunting, and shall exhibit the same whenever called upon by any game warden or citizen of said county so to do, and upon refusal to so exhibit such person so refusing shall be subject to the fines and penalties hereinbefore provided for non-compliance with the provisions of this section. Nothing in this section shall apply to any person or persons owning or leasing land in Baltimore County from gunning, hunting, pursuing during the open season the birds and animals named in this Act upon the lands so owned or leased by said person or persons.

SEC. 11. Any owner who shall permit his dog or dogs to run at large during the closed season, and pursue or kill, harm or destroy any birds or game mentioned in the two preceding sections, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof be subject to a fine of five dollars and costs for each and every offense, said fine to go to informer, person or persons securing the conviction, or imprisonment in jail for five days, in the discretion of the Court or Justice of the Peace imposing said fine or sentence, except any owner between September 1st and November 9th, exclusive of both dates, shall be permitted to run or train his dogs; provided he accompany them; but in so doing he shall not be allowed or permitted to carry a gun. Any person or persons who shall harbor or permit any dog to remain on or about their premises shall be deemed the owner of such dog for the purpose of enforcing this section.

SEC. 12. All moneys received by the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County for license issued under Section 7 of this Act shall be paid over to the Chief Game Warden for Baltimore County, whose appointment is hereinafter provided for by this Act, and expended as hereinafter provided for.

SEC. 13. All game wardens and the State Game Warden are hereby empowered to make arrests without a warrant of any person or persons upon their seeing or knowing of any violation of any of the foregoing sections, and are hereby expressly exempted from any liability because of any arrest he or they make while in the performance of their duties.

SEC. 14. Every person who is an actual resident of Baltimore County shall be entitled to an allowance from the county
