

be made, under the provisions of this Act, and shall by ordinance levy a tax for the fiscal year, which tax shall become due immediately upon the levy thereof.

SEC. 25. And be it enacted, That if the taxes of any property owner shall not be paid by the first day of January, there shall be added a penalty of one per centum thereof, and a like penalty of one per centum on the first day of each succeeding month until such taxes and penalties are paid.

SEC. 26. And be it enacted, That on or before the third Saturday in June of each year, but not before the 15th day of June, the treasurer shall, after giving notice for two successive weeks by posting in at least five conspicuous places in said town of the time, place of the sale, the name of the delinquent taxpayer, the description of the property and the amount of the delinquent tax and penalties computed to the day of the sale, offer at public sale at some place within said town all real property which is then subject to a lien for delinquent taxes, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the delinquent taxes due from the owner thereof, with accrued penalties and costs, and shall continue the sale from day to day until all the taxes are paid, or until each piece of property has been offered at least twice, and any taxes then remaining unpaid, with penalties and costs, shall be extended upon the tax books and shall be collectible by sale at the tax sale of the ensuing year or years.

SEC. 27. And be it enacted, That the person who offers to pay the taxes, penalties and costs due from any owner of any piece or pieces of property for the smallest portion of the same, shall be considered the purchaser. The purchaser shall forthwith pay to the Treasurer the amount of the taxes, penalties and costs, and the Treasurer shall deliver to such purchaser an assignable certificate of purchase designating the land and the amount paid therefor. The holder of any such certificate shall have the authority to pay all taxes levied against such property after the date of sale.

SEC. 28. And be it enacted, That real property sold for taxes may be redeemed by the owner or any person having an interest therein at any time within two years from the date of the sale by paying to the Treasurer the amount paid by the tax purchaser at the sale, the amount of all subsequent taxes paid by such purchaser, his heirs or assigns, and interest at the rate of fifteen per cent. per annum from the date of such payment or payments.

SEC. 29. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer shall deliver to the person making the redemption a certificate of redemp-
