

the duty of the Bailiff of said town, the Sheriff of said Caroline County, or any Constable thereof, to arrest any person or persons so offending and violating any ordinances or by-laws of said town and to take such person or persons before some Justice of the Peace for said county, and, upon conviction of said offense or offenses, the said offender or offenders shall be fined as provided for in said by-laws or ordinance so violated. Together with costs of prosecution, the fine to go to the use of the said corporation, and in default of payment of fine and costs, as aforesaid, the person or persons so convicted shall be committed to the jail in said county until said fine and costs are paid; provided such imprisonment shall not continue longer than ten days, and the Bailiff of Federalsburg is hereby clothed with all authority conferred upon Constables by the laws of this State, and are empowered to take cognizance of all offenses committed in said town, as well as those against the laws of the State of Maryland as against the by-laws and ordinances of said town.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1910.

CHAPTER 133.

AN ACT to amend Article 6 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Caroline County," sub-title "Almshouse," by adding three new sections thereto, to come in after Section 10A and be designated Sections 10B, 10C and 10D.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Article 6 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Caroline County," sub-title "Almshouse," be and the same is hereby amended by adding three new sections thereto, to immediately follow Section 10A and to be designated as Section 10B, 10C and 10D, and so that said sub-title of said Article as amended shall read as follows:

10B. That if said County Commissioners shall deem it not advisable to change the location of the almshouse, and consequently not advisable to sell the entire almshouse farm, as provided in Section 9A of this sub-title of this Article, then they are hereby authorized to sell and by good and sufficient deed to convey such parcel of said farm, not exceeding two hundred and fifty acres, as in their judgment is not profitable to retain with the same; provided, however, that all of the arable land and a sufficient quantity of the woodland for the use and purpose of said farm shall be retained and not sold.