

vided, however, that these ducks shall not be hunted, shot at, shot or killed before the first day of November in the Elk river below a straight line drawn across said river from Plum Point to Locust Point, nor beyond the mouth of any of the small creeks flowing into the said river, from any boat, vessel or craft of any kind; and it shall not be lawful for any person or persons, company or corporation to sell, or offer to sell, or expose for sale, or to take, carry away, ship, express or by any means remove beyond the limits of Cecil county, any of the birds or game mentioned in this section at any time, except railbird, reedbird, blackbird, snipe, wild rabbit and wild ducks; it shall be lawful, however, at any season of the year to shoot blackbirds flying over or feeding upon grain fields.

38A. It shall not be lawful for any person who is not a resident of said Cecil county to hunt, chase, shoot, shot at, trap, kill, or in any manner take or destroy, any of the birds, game or ducks mentioned in the foregoing section of this Act, unless he or she shall have first obtained a license therefor, and the license fee for said non-residents of Cecil county shall be ten dollars ($10); and each and every such person who shall apply for and be issued a license under this Act shall keep the same about his person when exercising the privileges for which said license was issued; and shall show the same when requested so to do, and no person shall use said license other than the one to whom the same was issued; and it shall not be lawful for any person to shoot, trap or kill, or in any manner take or destroy in any one day, any of the birds, game or ducks mentioned in this Act in excess of the following quantities, to wit:

12 quail or partridges; 4 pheasants or grouse; 12 woodcock, 15 snipe, 50 railbirds, 50 blackbirds, 5 wild rabbits, 20 Bartram's sandpiper, commonly called grass plover; 20 marsh plover, 6 squirrels, 25 each of teal, wood, mallard, sprigtail and black ducks; 25 crowbill ducks.

38B. From and after the passage of this Act all licenses to hunt, chase, shoot, trap, kill, or in any manner take or destroy, any of the birds, game or ducks mentioned in Section 38 of this Act shall be issued by the Cecil County Game Protective Association, and the net revenue arising therefrom shall be used by said association for the protection, preservation and restocking of Cecil county with birds and game; and that all licenses issued by said association shall contain the name and residence of the applicant and such other marks of identification as the said association from time to time shall prescribe and be printed or written on said license, but no license shall be issued by said association unless the same has been signed by the applicant; and it shall be a part of the duties of the
