

Elections be delivered to the judges of any town election for the purpose of holding said town election.

SEC. 132. On the third Monday in May, nineteen hundred and ten, and every two years thereafter, the duly registered voters shall elect by ballot a President, who shall serve for two years from that date and until his successor is duly elected and qualified, and at the same time elect two Commissioners, to serve for a term of two years and until their successors are elected and qualified, and the President and the two Commissioners elected on the second Monday of April, nineteen hundred and eight, shall serve until the third Monday in May, in the year nineteen hundred and ten, and until their successors are elected and qualified; and the two Commissioners elected in the year 1909 shall serve until the third Monday in May, 1911, and until their successors are elected and qualified, and on said third Monday in May in every year hereafter there shall be elected two Commissioners, to serve for the term of two years and until their successors are elected and qualified, and no person shall be entitled to have his name placed on the ballot or be voted for as a candidate for President or Commissioner of said town who shall not have filed with the President and Town Commissioners a certificate, certifying for which office he is a candidate, and that he is qualified under the provisions of this Act for such office, at least ten days before the day on which the election is to be held for the election of such President or Commissioner.

SEC. 132A. The President and Commissioners of said town shall annually designate the time and place of holding said election, and give at least fifteen days' notice thereof by notices set up at ten of the most prominent places in the town; and at some meeting prior to the third Monday in May in each year shall appoint two persons, one from each of the leading political parties of the State, to act as judges of said election, who, before acting as such, shall qualify in the same manner as judges of election for State and county offices in this State are required to qualify before a Justice of the Peace, and shall open the polls at two o'clock P. M. on the third Monday in May in each year and close the same at six o'clock P. M., and the person voted for for President as aforesaid at said election who shall receive the highest number of votes shall be President as aforesaid, and the person in number, according to the preceding section, voted for at said election for Commissioners for said town who shall, respectively, receive the highest number of votes shall be Commissioners, as aforesaid.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 5, 1910.
