

all taxes collectible by him, for making a complete statement of the State and county taxes which may be in his hands uncollected, and to pay over to the parties entitled thereto, the amounts, respectively due thereon, which period of twelve months the said retiring collector is hereby given for the purposes aforesaid, and in which period he shall fully complete the collection and accounting aforesaid, and shall fully report to the Circuit Court for Charles County, all unreported tax sales which shall have been made by him, as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 4. That the County Commissioners shall provide and furnish the Treasurer an office in the courthouse building, or in some other building, as near thereto as possible, and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to keep his said office open daily, except on legal holidays, and shall attend for the transaction of business therein in person or by deputy appointed as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 5. That the said Treasurer may appoint some person resident in said county to the Assistant Treasurer, who shall be authorized to act in his place and for whose acts he shall be responsible, and who shall give such bond, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties imposed upon him, as the Treasurer may require; the said Assistant Treasurer to be paid three hundred dollars by the county and such other compensation, if any, as the Treasurer may contract to pay him out of his own salary or commissions, and the said sum of three hundred dollars shall be levied for the use of the said Assistant Treasurer at the same time as hereinafter provided for the levy of the salary of the Treasurer.

SEC. 6. That the said Treasurer shall receive an annual salary of twelve hundred dollars, to be levied by the County Commissioners at their annual levy each year, beginning with the first levy after the term of office of said Treasurer shall begin; and he shall also be allowed the commissions allowed by Article 81 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, entitled "Revenue and Taxes," for the collection of State taxes, as well as such fees for making new assessments as are now allowed to collectors for making the same.

SEC. 7. That all persons or incorporated institutions who shall pay their taxes, State or county, on or before the first day of September of the year for which they were levied, shall be entitled to a deduction of three per centum on the amount of said taxes; for all taxes that are due, after the first day of September succeeding the date of their levy there shall be interest charged at the rate of 6 per centum per annum, but payment of said taxes shall not be enforced by sale until after the first day of January succeeding the date of the levy of the same.
