46. Every male citizen of the United States of the age of twenty-one years and upwards who has been a resident of Cambridge for one year, and of the ward in which he may offer to vote for thirty days next preceding the election, shall be entitled to vote in the ward in which he resides at all elections hereafter to be held in said town, but a person who shall have acquired a residence in one ward of said town entitling him to vote at any such election shall be entitled to vote in the ward from which he removed until he shall have acquired a residence in the ward to which he has removed.

73. The year for ordering and repairing the streets, lanes, alleys and thoroughfares of said town shall be reckoned from the first day of May, inclusive, in one year, to the first day of May, inclusive, in the next year. Every able-bodied male person between the age of twenty-one and fifty years who has resided in said town for four months shall be bound to work on said streets, lanes, alleys and thoroughfares for one day in every year, as the year is herein defined. And if any person who is liable to render service fails to attend, on notice from the chief bailiff, or sub-bailiff, or who appears and fails or refuses to work and render service as by the person or persons supervising the work he is required and instructed, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, before a justice of the peace, or in the Circuit Court for Dorchester County, such person shall be fined one dollar and shall be adjudged to pay the costs and to stand committed to jail until fine and costs are paid, and he shall be bound to render proper service. Any person who pays to the chief bailiff the sum of one dollar in lieu of rendering personal service on the streets, lanes and thoroughfares of Cambridge shall receive a receipt therefor from said chief bailiff exempting him from work and service on the street for the term of one year, as the year is hereinbefore defined, the Commissioners of Cambridge shall have full power and authority to pass one or more ordinances for executing, carrying out and enforcing the provisions thereof and providing systematic arrangements in respect thereto.
