

districts of said county all the State and county taxes, levied by the County Commissioners and placed in the hands of the collectors for collection, and he shall collect all moneys due and owed to the said county from any and every source whatever, including the taxes charged on mortgages, and he shall disburse all said moneys under the provisions of law and under the order of the County Commissioners. It shall be his duty promptly to deposit any and all moneys by him received and collected in some bank or banks or in some banking institution or institutions in Dorchester county, to be approved by the County Commissioners. No account or other claim against the county shall be paid by the said treasurer and clerk unless the payment thereof has been previously ordered by the County Commissioners, and all checks or drafts for withdrawing money deposited as aforesaid in any bank or banking institution shall be signed by the said treasurer and clerk as treasurer of Dorchester county and clerk, and the same shall be countersigned by the president of the Board of County Commissioners. On the first day of October, on the first day of January, and the first day of April, following each and every yearly levy, beginning with the levy of 1910, the treasurer and clerk shall account with the State Comptroller, and he shall pay over to the State Treasurer all the State taxes included in said levy, which he has previously collected, but not paid over, and on the first day of June following the said levy he shall account with the State Comptroller and he shall pay the State Treasurer the entire amount of the State taxes embraced in said levy, less allowances for insolvencies and removals. The Treasurer of Dorchester County and Clerk shall perform all the duties and services now required by law of the clerk of the County Commissioners, or which may be hereafter required of the same by law, or which may be required of him by any order of the County Commissioners. He shall have charge of all records, papers, books and other things appertaining or belonging to the County Commissioners, and he shall not allow any of said things to be removed or taken from their office or custody, except in obedience to a summons or order of a Court of law or equity, or upon the written authority of the County Commissioners. Before he enters upon the discharge of the duties of his office the "Treasurer of Dorchester County and Clerk," whether appointed or elected, shall as such take and subscribe before the Clerk of the Circuit Court for said county or one of his deputies, the oath of office, prescribed in Section six of Article one of the State Constitution, and, further, the said official shall execute and present to the said County Commissioners, for their approval, a bond to the State of Maryland in the penalty of twenty thousand dollars, in reference to
