

all intents and for all purposes, the Treasurer of Dorchester County and the Clerk of the County Commissioners thereof, under the title "The Treasurer of Dorchester County and Clerk," with all the rights, powers, duties and obligations belonging to said office under and by the law. But the said W. Hamilton Spedden or his successor in office, in addition to the other services and duties belonging to said office, shall be required to collect from the taxpayers, in all the election districts of said county, the State and county taxes not already collected which were levied by the County Commissioners in the year nineteen hundred and eight and nineteen hundred and nine, respectively, and also the taxes on mortgages not already collected, payable in the said years respectively, if required to enforce the payment thereof by seizure and sale, he or his successor in office, shall take similar proceedings to those which the collectors in the several election districts are in such case by law authorized and directed to take. The said W. Hamilton Spedden shall execute and present to the County Commissioners for their approval, on or before the first day of July, in the year nineteen hundred and ten, as aforementioned, first a bond to the State of Maryland, in the penalty of twenty thousand dollars, with the following conditions therein: Now the condition of this obligation is such, that if the above-bounden W. Hamilton Spedden shall well and faithfully execute his office of Treasurer of Dorchester County and Clerk of the County Commissioners thereof, and he shall account with the Comptroller of the State Treasury for and shall pay to the Treasurer of the State the several sums of money, which he shall receive for the State, or be answerable for by law, at such times as the law shall direct, and if he shall further account with the State Comptroller for and shall pay to the State Treasurer the several sums of money which he shall receive for the State or be answerable for by law from State taxes levied in the years nineteen hundred and eight and nineteen hundred and nine, at such times as the law shall direct, then this obligation shall be void, but otherwise it shall remain in full force and virtue in law; and second, the said W. Hamilton Spedden on or before the first day of July, nineteen hundred and ten, shall execute and present to the County Commissioners for their approval a bond to the State of Maryland in the penalty of thirty thousand dollars, with the following condition therein: Now the condition of this obligation is such, that if the above-bound W. Hamilton Spedden shall well and faithfully execute his office of Treasurer of Dorchester County and Clerk of the County Commissioners thereof, and if he shall account for and pay to the County Commissioners of said county or to their order, the several sums of money which he shall receive for the said
