

or account against the said county shall not apply to the payment of witness' fees, jurors' fees, crier's fees or bailiff's fees. Such fees may be paid by the Treasurer and Clerk upon the order of the Circuit Court for said county, or upon the order of the clerk of such court. Upon the order of a justice of the peace he may pay the witness' fees which the State is bound to pay in criminal cases.

116. The Treasurer and Clerk shall pay to the treasurer of the Board of County School Commissioners of Dorchester County all moneys levied for the support of the public schools thereof at the time and in the manner prescribed by the Public General Laws of this State.

116A. As aforementioned, the Treasurer and Clerk must deposit all moneys received and collected by him in some bank or banking institution in Dorchester County of which the County Commissioners approve, and in approving such place or places of deposit the said Commissioners shall prefer the bank or banking institution which will agree to pay two per cent. on monthly balances or deposit, rather than any bank or banking institution which will not pay said interest.

116B. The County Commissioners shall make all just allowances to the several collectors of State and county taxes for insolvents and removals upon the application of any such collector substantiated by his affidavit that the allowances asked are just, and that he has not received and cannot collect the moneys for which the allowances are prayed. The president of the County Commissioners is hereby authorized to administer said oath.

117. The Treasurer and Clerk in the case of State taxes shall make application to the County Commissioners for an allowance for all just claims for insolvents and removals, and he shall append thereto his affidavit, made before the said Commissioners, that he has not received and cannot collect any of the moneys for which such allowances are asked; and the president of the Board of County Commissioners is hereby authorized to administer such oath. Upon the presentation of said application and affidavit, with the certificate of the County Commissioners appended to or endorsed thereon, setting forth that they believe the allowance to be just, the Comptroller of the State shall make the allowances asked for.

117A. On the first day of October, on the first day of January, and on the first day of April in each year, and oftener if the County Commissioners require, the Treasurer and Clerk shall make to the said commissioners a sworn report of the receipts and disbursements of the public moneys and funds in his
