

Constitution, and he shall execute such bond or bonds to the said Treasurer and Clerk as he may require.

121B. In the year nineteen hundred and ten the Treasurer of Dorchester County and Clerk shall by all lawful means inform himself of all the real estate, buildings, improvements and personal estate in the several election districts of said county which are liable to taxation, but which are not assessed on the tax books of the county, and he shall make out a list thereof and value the said property at the full cash value thereof, and shall return such list to the County Commissioners on the second Tuesday of May in said year, and they shall have authority to revise and correct the valuation. The said Treasurer and Clerk shall be paid one dollar for each thousand dollars' worth of property assessed. In the year 1911 and in each subsequent year the collector in each election district of said county shall be entitled to inform himself of all unassessed property in his district, and to make out a list thereof, and shall value the same, and to return such list to the County Commissioners on the second Tuesday of May in the current year, who may revise and correct the valuation; and said collectors shall receive payment at the above rate.

121c. The collectors of State and county taxes in the several election districts of the said county shall on the first Tuesday of every second month or oftener if required return to the County Commissioners a list of all taxpayers who have paid their taxes during the previous two months, and the Treasurer of Dorchester County and Clerk shall enter in a suitable book properly indexed the name or names of such taxpayers as returned to the County Commissioners from time to time by the collectors in the several districts of said county.

121D. In the case of any mortgage now of record among the Mortgage Records of Dorchester county, or that shall hereafter be recorded among the said Mortgage Records, the tax payable on said mortgage shall become payable, due and in arrear, on the first day of September, in the year nineteen hundred and ten, and on the first day of September in every subsequent year, during the existence of such mortgage. If the tax is paid before it becomes payable, due and in arrear, a rebate of two per centum on the amount of the tax shall be allowed. As soon as the tax on any mortgage in any year shall become due and in arrear the Treasurer of Dorchester county and Clerk, if the tax has not been paid, shall proceed with reasonable diligence to enforce the payment thereof; he shall prepare or cause to be prepared two similar written, typewritten, or printed notices, and in each one of the same he shall state the name or names of the mortgagee or mortgagees, of the mort-
