

bridge as aforesaid shall have the right within twenty days after the making of such assessment to appeal to the Circuit Court for Dorchester County.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That all other expenses connected with the improvement of the said streets, including curbing and gutter work, if any, and the paving of the street crossings, as well as all expenses connected with the execution of this law, such as the cost of advertising, the purchase of books and stationery, the printing of the bonds herein authorized, the employment of an attorney or counsel, if any should be needed, and other necessary and incidental expenditures, shall be paid out of the street improvement fund hereby authorized, and shall not be included in the cost to be levied upon the abutting property owners.

SEC. 11. Provided, however, that the foregoing sections shall not become effective unless the same be approved by a majority of the qualified voters of the Town of Cambridge, aforesaid, participating in a special election at which the question of street improvements as hereinbefore provided, shall be submitted, to be held in the year 1910 on the same day and between the same hours upon which the qualified voters of the town aforesaid shall engage in an election for five commissioners of said town under the provisions of the town charter.

At each polling place in the said town on said date there shall be provided by the Commissioners of Cambridge tickets having written or printed therein "For Street Improvements" and "Against Street Improvements," and each qualified voter shall have the privilege of voting on said subject.

The ballots so cast shall be deposited in separate ballot boxes provided by said Commissioners for such purpose and shall be received and counted by the same judges and clerks who are delegated and appointed to conduct the election for the office of Commissioners of Cambridge (it being the intent and purpose of this Act that the judge and clerks appointed by the Commissioners of Cambridge aforesaid, for holding the election for said office of Commissioners of Cambridge shall have full power to conduct the special election on the question of street improvement), and the return of said votes shall be forthwith made to the Commissioners of Cambridge who promptly shall make proclamation of the result of said election by advertisement to be published in one or more newspapers printed in the town of Cambridge aforesaid, and provided further that the said Commissioners shall give at least three weeks' notice of the time and places of said election on the subject of street improvement by advertisement published
