

shall pay over to the town treasurer on the first Monday of each month the public moneys in his hands, and when required by the Commissioners he shall report in writing the general state of the town, and at any time he may recommend any matters as he may think will promote its interest. He shall approve or disapprove every order, resolution or ordinance passed by the Commissioners, and every order, resolution or ordinance shall be submitted to him by them immediately after its passage, and within ten days after date of its passage he shall act on the same, and if he shall approve it or fail to act on it within ten days from the date of its passage, which fact shall be endorsed by the clerk of the Commissioners, it shall become operative and effectual; but if the Burgess shall veto any order, resolution or ordinance, he shall notify the clerk of the fact and transmit his reason in writing to the Commissioners at their next regular meeting, and such order, resolution or ordinance shall not become operative and effectual unless passed over his veto by the affirmative vote of all the members of the board. If at any time the Burgess shall think any person appointed to office by him shall be incompetent or unfaithful to the duties of his office, he may file a written statement of charges against him with the Commissioners, a copy of which charges shall be sent to the person charged, and the Board of Commissioners shall set a time to hear the same, and if, after a full hearing, they shall find such officer incompetent or unfaithful, the Burgess shall remove him from his office, and with the consent and approval of the Commissioners shall appoint a proper person to fill his place.

SEC. 136. The Burgess and Commissioners shall have no power to pledge the credit of the town, without first submitting the same to a vote of the qualified voters thereof, but the Commissioners, with the approval of the Burgess, or over his veto, as provided in Section 128 as amended by this Act, may temporarily borrow sums of money not amounting to more than $500 in any one year, to meet any deficiency in the town treasury, or to provide for any emergency arising from the necessity of maintaining the peace and good order of the town, and preserving its safety, health and sanitary condition, and may make due and proper arrangements and agreements for the renewal and extension in whole or in part.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 1, 1910.
