

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That it shall be unlawful for non-residents of the State of Maryland to fish in the waters of said counties without first obtaining a license from the Clerk of the Circuit Court of either Frederick or Carroll Counties. Said non-resident shall pay for said license the sum of five dollars, fifty cents of which shall go to the Clerk of the Court issuing same and the balance shall be paid to the State Treasurer to be credited to the State Game Protection Fund, to be used by the State Game Warden, as provided by law. Licensees shall exhibit said licenses when required to do so by deputy game wardens or constables, and upon failure to so do shall be subject to the same penalty as for a violation of this section.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That it shall be unlawful to have in possession within said counties any brook trout under six inches in length, measuring from the tip of the mouth to the tip of the tail.

SEC. 5. Any person violating any of the provisions of Sections one, two, four and five of this Art shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than fifty dollars. Any person failing to procure a license as required by Section 3, or failing to exhibit same when so requested to do by any deputy warden or constable, shall likewise be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall pay a fine of ten dollars. In the event of the non-payment of any of the fines imposed by this Act the person so convicted shall be committed to the County Jail until such fine is paid, but in no case shall such imprisonment be more than thirty days. One-half of any fines collected under this Act shall go to the informer, and the other half shall go to the State Treasurer, to be credited to the State Game Protection Fund and disbursed according to law.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts which are inconsistent with this law are hereby repealed.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1910.

CHAPTER 675.

AN ACT to amend Article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Frederick County," sub-title "Fish," by adding two new sections thereto, to be known as Section 126A and 126B.
