

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Genreal Assembly of Maryland, That Article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Frederick County," sub-title "Fish," be and the same is hereby amended by adding two new sections thereto, known as Sections 126A and 126B, so as to read as follows:

126A. It shall not be lawful for any person to catch, kill, destroy, or in any manner take any fish in Bush Creek in said county, save only with rod, line and hook, baited with natural bait, or baited with the artificial fly, or with a spoon or spinner.

126B. Any person violating the provisions of Section 126A, shall on conviction thereof, before a Justice of Peace pay a fine of not less than five dollars or more than thirty dollars for each fish so unlawfully taken, caught, killed or destroyed, and in default of payment of fine or fines under the provisions of this section, such person so defaulting shall be imprisoned in the Frederick county jail for not less than ten days or more than thirty days for each fish so unlawfully taken, caught, killed or destroyed; one-half of all fines imposed under this section to be paid to the original informer, and the remainder to be paid to the Maryland Fish Commission, for the purpose of stocking or re-stocking the streams of Maryland with game, fish, or in any other manner which they may deem advisable for the benefit of fish or fisheries in the State of Maryland.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8, 1910.
