

other sections of Chapter two hundred and four of the Acts of eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and all other Acts inconsistent with this Act, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

SEC. 262c. Immediately after the first day of February in each year, the Treasurer shall make up a list of all delinquent taxpayers and the amounts for which they are respectively in arrear, and if said taxes are not paid on or before the 20th day of said month, he shall immediately thereafter cause the same to be published once a week for two successive weeks in two county newspapers of general circulation, and charge a proportionate part of the cost thereof to each of said delinquents. Should any of such taxes so in arrear continue unpaid after said advertisement, the Treasurer shall make up a further list of all taxes due and in arrear, which list shall contain the names of the person or persons assessed, with the property upon which taxes are so due and in arrear, and a brief description of the property, the district of its location, and such references to conveyance as will render the same easy of identification, and the amount of the tax levied and in arrear thereon, with the interest and costs, and expenses accrued and to accrue thereon to the day of sale, to which list shall be appended a notice that if the said taxes are not paid on or before the second Monday in April next ensuing, together with the accrued interest thereon and proportional cost of advertising and fees, the Treasurer will proceed at ten o'clock A. M. on that day, at the courthouse door in said county, to offer each and every of said parcel of land, premises or other property for sale to the highest bidder, for cash, which said list and notice shall be published in two newspapers printed in said county of general circulation, for four consecutive weeks prior to the first Monday in April; and on the second Monday in April the said Treasurer shall proceed to sell any and all such pieces or parcels of land and premises and personal property on which said taxes, interest, costs and fees shall not then have been paid, and shall continue such sale each secular day, legal holidays excepted, from ten o'clock A. M. until 3 o'clock P. M., until every parcel and all said property shall have been sold.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.
