

CHAPTER 141.

AN ACT to add two new sections to Article 13 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Harford County," subtitle "Fish," said sections to come in after Section 132 of said Article, and to be known as 132A and 132B, prohibiting non-residents of Harford County from fishing in the waters of the Bush and Gunpowder rivers, except with hook and line.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the following sections be added to and incorporated in Article 13 of the Code of Public Laws, title "Harford County," subtitle "Fish," to be known as Sections 132A and 132B, and to read respectively as follows:

132A. It shall not be lawful for any person not a bona fide resident of the county to fish in the waters of the Bush river and Gunpowder river, in the county of Harford, with pound nets, fike nets, stake nets, hoop nets, gill nets, purse seine, buck net, haul seine or any trap or net of any kind or description, except with hook and line; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent owners, renters or lessors of farms and lands bordering upon the waters of said rivers from catching fish with nets in said waters.

132B. Each and every person violating any of the provisions of Section 132A shall be subject to arrest by any person authorized by law to make the same, or upon a warrant issued by any Justice of the Peace of said county, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars for each and every violation of the provisions of said Section 132A, or for each and every day upon or during which said person shall or may repeat or continue such violation of said provisions of said Section 132A; one-half of said fine or fines to be paid as and when collected to the Commissioners of Fisheries of the State of Maryland, to be used and expended for the protection of fish and the enforcement of laws pertaining to fish, and the other half to informer.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 5, 1910.

CHAPTER 69.

AN ACT to add an additional section to the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Harford County," to be known under subtitle of "Fraud on Livery Stable Keepers," providing for the punishment of persons hiring horses or
