

which the judges of election shall cause to be prepared before such election, and there shall be at least one thousand of said tickets or ballots as aforesaid prepared for every such election, which shall consist of as many complete tickets as shall be filed with the said judges of election on or before the 25th day of March prior to said election, each ticket bearing some particular emblem and some designation by name when filed.

56F. There shall be an entire new registration of voters for said city every twelve years, accounting from the first Monday in February, 1911, in the manner as hereinbefore provided.

61. The Mayor and City Council may pass ordinances to preserve the health of the city; to prevent and remove nuisances, to suppress gambling; to license public amusements not taxed by the State; to open and keep open streets, lanes and alleys, with the consent of the owners of the land through which the same may pass, or by paying damages therefor, which said damages in all cases when property is condemned for city purposes shall be determined by a jury of twelve disinterested male citizens of the said city, whom for that purpose the Mayor shall cause to be summoned and sworn; and the said jury so summoned and sworn shall return, under their hands and seals, to the Mayor of said city, the result of their findings; and such damages so found shall be paid out of the treasury of the said city. The Mayor and City Council shall further have power to enact all laws and ordinances necessary to prevent the introduction of contagious diseases within said city; to establish night watches and patrols; to light the city; to erect and repair bridges; to pave, construct and keep in repair all necessary drains and sewers, and to pass all necessary regulations for the regulation, repair and preservation of the same; to regulate party walls and partition fences; to provide for the licensing and regulating the sweeping and burning of chimneys and fixing the rates therefor, and to prescribe the size of those to be built in the city; to establish and regulate fire companies; to provide for the licensing, regulating or restraining theatrical or other public amusements within the said city; to license hawkers, pedlars, traveling physicians, vendors of patent medicines or other articles; to sink wells; to make and regulate pumps, water pipes, hydrants, water plugs, fountains, sewers, and so forth, in the streets, lanes and alleys of the city, and to pass laws to protect the same; to impose and appropriate fines, penalties and forfeitures for the breach of their by-laws or ordinances; to pass ordinances for the prevention and extinguishment of fires, and to purchase and keep in repair a fire engine and apparatus, and to provide for the establishment of a fire and water department; to pass ordinances for paving and keeping in repair the streets, lanes