

office leaving any costs, fees or charges uncollected, lawfully payable to him, his successor shall collect and pay over the same. He shall appoint a warden of the county jail, who shall be under his supervision and direction, who shall take charge of the jail and carefully and securely guard all prisoners who shall be placed in said jail, which said warden shall receive the sum of two hundred dollars annually as salary for his services as such warden. Said warden shall be allowed the sum of thirty cents per day for the keeping and boarding of each prisoner placed in said jail, and the said warden shall present his bill for the said keeping and boarding of said prisoners to the County Commissioners with the proper vouchers therefor quarterly, whereupon said County Commissioners shall issue their certificate to the County Treasurer for the payment thereof. It shall be the duty of the Sheriff to keep in his office an official record to be retained there by him, and such book or books as may be required to show all fees and charges to be collected by him, and those which may have been collected; whenever, in the judgment of the Sheriff, it shall be expedient and necessary for the safety and welfare of the county for him to appoint temporarily an extra number of deputy sheriffs, he is hereby authorized to appoint them, and it shall be the duty of the County Commissioners to allow and pay such reasonable fee or compensation as in their judgment they may deem proper for the services rendered by such deputy sheriffs, but in no case shall such deputy sheriffs continue to serve longer than the necessity of the case actually warrants.

125. It shall be the duty of the Sheriff to attend, either in person or by deputy, the sessions of the Circuit Court, sitting either in law or equity, and the Orphans' Court, or either of them, whenever they are in session, and he or his deputy shall perform the duties of bailiff of the Orphans' Court whenever so required by the said Orphans' Court.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 11, 1910.

CHAPTER 5.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Chapter 121 of the Acts of 1900, entitled "An Act to provide for the selecting, drawing and summoning of jurors for Howard County."