

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That for the purpose aforesaid, the said County Commissioners of said county are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to borrow said sum of money and to secure the said money, the said County Commissioners are further authorized and empowered to issue bonds of said county, for the sum of twelve thousand dollars ($12,000) and in such denominations and for such period or periods as said County Commissioners may deem expedient; the said bonds to be issued in series, maturing as said County Commissioners shall determine, and bear interest not exceeding four per centum per annum from date; all of which bonds shall be exempt from county and municipal taxation in said county; and for purpose of paying such bonds as they may mature the said County Commissioners are hereby directed to levy in each and every year upon the assessable property of said county to be collected as other county taxes now are, or as may be directed by any general or special law for the collection of county taxes, such sum as shall be sufficient to pay the interest on such of said bonds as may then remain unpaid, and also the principal of such bond or bonds as may mature within the fiscal year for which levy is made.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 8th. 1910.

CHAPTER 550.

AN ACT to regulate the salary of the State's Attorney for Montgomery county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the State's Attorney for Montgomery county shall receive an annual salary of two thousand dollars for the performance of the official duties of his said office, which now or hereafter may be required by law, said salary to be in lieu of all fees, appearance and trial, and all other compensations for same, and to be payable semi-annually, on the first day of January and the first day of July, by the County Treasurer, upon an order of the County Commissioners; and said duties shall also include his services before the Justices of the Peace of said county in criminal cases in preliminary hearings or trials when in the public interest he attends on his own motion or at the request of any of the said Justices, and shall include all advice regarding criminal law and procedure which he shall give any Justice of the Peace of said county; provided, however, that his actual expenses incurred in following and trying criminal cases removed from said county shall be paid