

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections four hundred and ten (410), four hundred and eleven (411), and four hundred and twelve (412), of Article 27, entitled "Crimes and Punishments," subtitle "Trade—Trading Stamps," of the Code of Public General Laws of the State of Maryland, as legalized by Chapter 72 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1904, be and the same are hereby repealed; that Section four hundred and twelve (412) be and the same is hereby re-enacted so as to be numbered Section four hundred and eleven (411) of said Article 27, and that five new sections, numbered respectively Section four hundred and ten (410), to follow immediately section numbered four hundred and nine (409), and Sections four hundred and twelve (412), four hundred and twelve A (412A), four hundred and twelve B (412B), and four hundred and twelve C (412c), and following immediately after said Section four hundred and eleven (411), as re-enacted, be and the same are hereby added to said Article 27, the said section so re-enacted as renumbered and said five new sections so added to said Article, to read respectively, as follows:

SEC. 410. It shall not be unlawful for any manufacturer to place his own tickets, coupons or other vouchers in or upon packages of goods manufactured by him, such tickets, coupons or other vouchers to be redeemed by such manufacturer, either in money or merchandise, whether said packages are sold directly to the consumer or through retail merchants; nor shall it be unlawful for any person to issue with such packages, tickets, coupons or other vouchers so issued by said manufacturer.

SEC. 411. No person shall sell or issue any stamps, trading stamps, cash discount stamp, check, ticket, coupon or other similar device, which will entitle the holder thereof, on presentation thereof, either singly or in definite number, to receive, either directly from the vender or indirectly through any other person, money or goods, wares and merchandise, in which there shall be printed or written upon the face of each of said stamps, trading stamps, cash discount stamps, checks, tickets, coupons or other similar devices, a different redeemable value in merchandise from the redeemable value in money.

SEC. 412. No person, firm or corporation shall issue, sell or give any stamp, trading stamp, cash discount stamps, ticket, check, coupon or other similar device referred to in Sections 404, 405, 407, 408, 411, 412A, and 412B of this Article, of which the redeemable value shall be less than one cent. And said monetary redeemable value shall be legibly printed or written upon the face of each stamp, trading stamp, cash discount