

building regulations not to conflict with those already so established by deed or contract affecting land placed within or hereinafter to be admitted to the limits of the village; for prohibiting the carrying of concealed weapons and the discharge of firearms, torpedoes, and other explosives, or preventing swine, cattle, fowls, dogs, or other animals from running at large on the streets; for regulating the use of the streets by vehicles of all kinds; for the protection of the health of the village; for the suppression of gambling, vice and ignorance; for protecting the purity of the water supply of the village of Chevy Chase, and for raising revenue to meet current expenses, subject to the limitations hereinafter expressed, and such other ordinances are usually are within the power of municipal corporations as well as all ordinances necessary to enforce the foregoing provisions, which may be enforced by reasonable fines and penalties not exceeding twenty-five dollars ($25.00) as may appear to said Board of Trustees right. They may recover such fine or penalty by an action of debt, and in addition thereto may cause the offender to be imprisoned until the fine be paid or for a term not exceeding thirty (30) days imprisonment in the County Jail of Montgomery county and the sheriff of Montgomery county shall receive and confine any person so committed.

SEC. E. The Board of Trustees shall have power to establish the grades of the streets, gutters and sidewalks of said village, fix the width thereof, prescribe the material of which the same shall be constructed, and cause them to be graded, paved, or otherwise improved and in the matter of opening new streets, grading, paving, and improving the same the grading, paving or improving streets already opened but not graded, paved or improved and in the matter of parkings, trees, and shrubbery along the same or laying or paving sidewalks, curbs, water mains or sewers on the same shall assess the cost of such improvement against the abutting property and the tax so assessed shall become a lien against the property abutting on said street or streets, sidewalks, in proportion to the frontage of said lots, and said tax when so assessed by the Board of Trustees may be recovered at law in the manner provided for the collection of other delinquent taxes under this Act. The Board of Trustees shall order improvements upon any street as herein provided, on petition of two-thirds of the property owners residing upon said street, provided, that all repairs to macadamized streets and all repairs to sidewalks, crossings and gutters shall be a charge against the general fund of the village, except as hereinafter provided.

SEC. F. The Board of Trustees shall be empowered to authorize the use of the streets or avenues for railroads operated