

for municipal purposes, the said contract and the payment thereunder to be in consideration of the use and enjoyment of the streets and roadways of said municipality, and said other utilities as said Club may use and enjoy; also to enter into a contract with the Chevy Chase Land Company, by virtue of which the said Company shall pay to the village of Chevy Chase the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000) annually for a period of three (3) years for public purposes of the village, and in consideration thereof shall not be charged with taxes upon so much of the land in Section 3 and between Grafton street and the property of the Chevy Chase Club as shall be used for sewage purpose so long as they shall be so used.

SEC. J. And on or before the first Monday in June, 1910, and each third year thereafter the Board of Trustees shall appoint three assessors, freeholders of said village, who shall under its direction make an assessment of all the real and personal property in said village except such as is included within so much of the area of said village as lies east of the point where the Broad Branch road crosses the boundary line of the District of Columbia, and continuing with said road in a northerly direction to its junction with the Brookeville road, and north along said road to the most northern boundary of the land embraced within said village, and make return within thirty (30) days after their appointment to the Board of Trustees of their list, and the Board of Trustees shall immediately thereafter levy a tax on all said property so returned, not exceeding fifty (50) cents on each one hundred dollars' ($100.00) worth of said assessable property as so assessed in any one year, and all taxes so levied shall be a lien on any and all property of the persons against whom they may be levied, and any person may appeal from the valuation of said assessors to the Board of Trustees, who shall meet on the first Monday in July after said assessment, and remain in session from day to day as long as may be reasonable, to hear and determine said appeals, and shall give reasonable notice of said meetings, and shall increase or reduce said assessment as they may deem just and equitable. All taxes levied by the Board of Trustees shall be due and payable immediately upon the levy thereof at the office of the Treasurer, and those ordinances providing for the levy of taxes shall of themselves constitute authority for the same, and no other warrant or evidence of authority shall be required. Within ten (10) days after notification to the Treasurer of the making of such assessment, he shall return to the person named therein an account or tax bill showing the amount due by him, if he be a resident of the village; and if he be a non-resident, and in consequence thereof cannot conveniently be served with said account or tax bill a copy of the
