CHAPTER 650.

AN ACT to repeal Sec. 130, Art. 17, of the Public Local Laws, title "Prince George's County," sub-title "Dogs and Foxes," and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, Section 130, Article 17, of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Prince George's County," sub-title "Dogs and Foxes," be and the same is hereby repealed and thereupon re-enacted to read as follows:

130. The sum of two dollars shall be paid by the County Commissioners to any person who may kill or destroy, or cause to be killed or destroyed, any fox above the age of six months, as near as can be ascertained, within the limits of the county; provided that before the killer of any fox in the county shall be entitled to said compensation or reward he shall present the scalp of the fox so killed to any Justice of the Peace of said county and make oath before him that the fox, the scalp of which is so presented, was taken and killed within the limits of the county, and such person shall deliver to said justice said scalp, who shall forthwith entirely destroy the same and give to such person a certificate for the same, showing the number of foxes killed by such person, which said certificate shall be sufficient evidence for the County Commissioners to pay the amount specified therein. Provided further, that no person killing a fox pursued by hounds, attended by huntsman, other than such huntsman, shall be entitled to said reward, and that the oath herein required shall conform to this proviso, and that the owner of the dog first mousing the fox shall be entitled to the compensation under this section.

Approved April 8, 1910.
