

W.H.KEEVIL.

66 $\frac{1}{2}$

MARKET STREET

THE TARIFF.

To Agriculturists and Others
OF THE COUNTRY.

To Mechanics and Others
OF THE CITY.

A Veto on English or French Hats.

WHO TALKS OF IMPORTING HATS FROM ENGLAND OR FRANCE, while "KEEVIL" is in the field? Pshaw, 'tis sheer folly! For while he continues to sell his beautiful HATS at his present reduced prices, any such a speculation as importing Hats from Europe will be "no go" or of "non-effect." Why KEEVIL will sell you a handsome SILK HAT for only $2.50, and a first rate RUSSIA HAT for $3.50. Also, a most superb NUTRIA BEAVER HAT for $4.00, being at least one dollar on each hat less than is charged at other Stores. The hatters, therefore, on the other side of the Atlantic had better keep their hats at home, as it would be quite as profitable for them to send "wooden nutmegs" and "saw dust hams" to New England, or "coals to Newcastle," as Hats to Baltimore, to compete with the well known

KEEVIL, KEEVIL,

No. 66 $\frac{1}{2}$, Baltimore st., a few doors from Holliday,

Exactly opposite Tripolett's alley.