

FOREIGN CONSULS RESIDING IN BALTI-MORE.

H. G. Jacobsen, 38 south Gay street, Danish consul.
John Crawford, British consul, south Frederick st.
near Second street.

Chevalier de Bernabue, Spanish consul, Saratoga st.
near St. Paul's church.

Robert Barry, Portuguese consul, St. Paul's st.
opposite the Baltimore Gazette Office.

Christian Mayer, consul-general of Wurtemberg.
Edward J. Coale, Brizilian vice-consul, opposite the post office and city hotel.

D. Kizer, Bowly's wharf, Swedish consul.

J. P. Kraft, Water, near South street, Prussian consul.

Frederick C. Graf, No. 38 south Gay st. Hamburg consul.

J. J. Hoogewerff, consul of the Netherlands, 44 S.
Gay street.

Charles Tiernau, Mexican vice-consul, S. Charles st
Richard W. Gill, vice-consul for Colombia, Court House lane.

R. Henry, 40 south Gay street, French consul.

C. A. Heineken, Water street, Bremen consul.

E. Valdes, Primrose alley, near Charles street, Sardinian consul.

LICENSED AUCTIONEERS IN BALTIMORE.

General Licensed.—Cobb & Poor; Mitchell, Henry & Co; H. & W. Evans; Hoffman, Bend & Co.;
Harrison & Sterett; B. Lomon & Co; Robert Barry.

Special Licensed.—Thos. Usher, Harrison Dawes,
John J. Harrod.

Book Auctioneer.—Henry W. Bohl, jun.

Horse Auctioneer.—Edward Quinn.

MARYLAND INSTITUTE.

William Stewart, president; George Warner and Melting Lutas, jr. vice-presidents; John Mowton, treasurer; John H. B. Latrobe, cor. sec.