

JAMES FOSTER,

No. 26, LIGHT ST. BALTIMORE.

Branding Irons & Stamps

For Millers, Merchants, Mechanics, &c.

Cut in the neatest and most durable manner, on the most reasonable terms with despatch.

Marine Coffee House,

No. 57, Water st.

EAST OF THE CUSTOM HOUSE, BALTIMORE,

KEPT BY

D. B. WATTS,

Where, during the season, is served up (in the epicurean way) Real Green Turtle and Pectoral Soups: also, Terrapins, Oysters, Cannass Basks, and other Fowl, Beef Steaks. Coffee, &c. &c. all at the shortest notice. Also,

BOARDING. by the week or otherwise.

The Subscriber, ever grateful for past favors, informs his customers, that for the past he tenders them his sincere thanks, and at the same time assures them, that he will, as the season shall approach, give timely notice of any thing in the above line.

N. B. Pectoral Soup which is celebrated for its good qualities, particularly for weak breasts, is recommended in the strongest terms, to those of that description.