

JUDGE ROBERT H. TERRELL.

Judge Robert H. Terrell, of the Municipal Court of Washington, D. C. is probably the most highly respected government official that has ever served. He has by his farsighted judgment and fair distribution of the Law won the admiration of the business men in whose district he presides. Judge Terrell has been appointed by three Presidents, namely, Roosevelt, Taft and Wilson. Judge Terrell is a graduate of Harvard University and the Howard Law School; was Assistant to the Fourth Auditor of the United States Treasury John R. Lynch; was for a number of years Principal of the M Street High School; later a member of the law firm of Lynch & Terrell. The Judge has made a place for the colored Americans in the United States Government. Mr Robert W. Coleman, of this city, formerly of the District and the author of this publication, is a first cousin to Judge Terrell.
