

REV. P. W. WORTHAM, D. D.

Rev. P. W. Wortham, D. D., was born in Warrenton, Warren County, N. C., and was educated in the schools of North Carolina and Virginia. After returning from school he was made principal of the Public School of Warrenton, which position he held for nine years. He was licensed to preach in May, 1887, the same year the M. E. Conference met at his home church, and he was received in the conference, and by request of the congregation was made pastor of his home church, which pastorate he held for four years, which was then the full time a pastor was allowed to remain. He has very successfully pastored the following charges: Roxboro, Burlington and Morganton. Was transferred to the Baltimore Annual Conference by Bishop James A. Handy, D. D., and stationed at St. Paul A. M. E. Church, Washington, D. C.; from there to Cumberland, Md.; Annapolis, Md.; Payne Memorial, Baltimore, Md.; served as P. E. of the Baltimore District. His present charge is St. John's A. M. E. Church, Baltimore, Md.