

CLARKE L. SMITH.

Lawyer Clarke L. Smith, "the people's lawyer," practices in all the Courts and gives especial attention to real estate matters. He is a member of St. James P. E. Church; President of The Profit-Sharing Building and Loan Association of Baltimore, Maryland; Treasurer of Citizens' Club of Baltimore; member of the Executive Committee of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; member of the Legal Redress and Legislative Committee, N. A. A. C. P.; member of Thomas W. Stringer Lodge Knights of Pythias, and is connected with various other movements for the social and economic interests of the race.

He took the State Bar Examination in November, 1914. There were about 100 members in his class, out of which only 68 passed, Mr. Smith being one of the successful candidates for admission, making a high mark in his examination.