MY DEAR SIR:—

I take pleasure on behalf of the Library of Congress, to acknowledge the receipt of the 4th edition of your directory of the Colored business inhabitants of Baltimore City, and further to say; it will be bound and placed in the Collection of books by Colored Authors and Compilers, etc.

Thanking you most heartily for the same, I beg to remain,

Very sincerely yours,

DANIEL MURRAY.

DEAR SIR:—

On my arrival home today I found a copy of your Directory. Please accept my thanks and congratulations for same. I have carefully perused its pages and they speak for themselves; and to avoid repetition of the commendatories I simply wish to thank you for the copy received.

You will find enclosed my check to encourage you in this great work.

I have the honor to remain, yours truly,

You are deserving of all praise for the enterprise you have shown in getting out each year a full and comprehensive directory of the Colored Professional, Clerical, Skilled and Business Men and Women of your City. A like publication ought to be gotten out in all of the large business centers of the country. It would be largely to the advantage of the race in the commercial world.
