

Rev. CHARLES RANDOLPH UNCLES

Rev. Charles Randolph Uncles was the first colored Catholic priest to be ordained in this country. His twenty-fifth anniversary as a priest was recently celebrated, Protestants and Catholics vying with each other in honoring him. A substantial purse was presented to him of $700.00.

Father Uncles is a native of Baltimore and at one time taught school in Baltimore County. He decided to become a Catholic priest, and entered St. Hyacinth's College, Canada. He was educated for the priesthood at St. Mary's Seminary, this city. He is at present an instructor in Epiphany Apostolic College, Baltimore.
